(SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS.")

Springville, Utah, May 29.—There were no new developments in the case of the outlaws who were expected to join the posse at daylight this morning.

More than one route. Then again it is argued the bandits could not go with the posse on account of the scarcity of horses, have been at home, and of the men who were at the Webster City ranches. The posse will see to it that the trail of the outlaws is followed. The posse will see to it that the trail of the outlaws is followed.

ATTEMPT TO RESCUE

Receiving a Wink and a Nod from a Friend, He Made a Desperate Effort to Get Away—Hard Struggle and Recapture—Friend Under $10,000 Bonds.

(SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS.")

Farmington, May 29.—The Haworth-Sandall murder case has furnished an unusual number of exciting episodes. One sensation has succeeded another with such regularity as to almost cause disappointment when a new one is not chronicled.

The successful flight of the perpetrators after the commission of the foul deed, the tireless pursuit of the officers of the law, the apprehension and return of the principal suspect, his remarkable conduct, embracing attempts at suicide, desperate efforts to escape, declarations that his attorneys were in league with the constabulary and people to kill him, and numerous other items of stirring character enter into the history of the case.

Plans for rescue. It came like a thunderbolt from an unclouded sky and startled judge, jury and spectators in a manner seldom seen in any court. So far as hurried inquiry and observation can determine it appears to be the result of a carefully concerted conspiracy to rescue Haworth from the officers of the law.

Rolling down together. The astonished crowd could realize what was taking place the big detective and the still bigger prisoner were locked in each other's embrace, each struggling for the mastery. They scuffling soon brought them into the open stairway and in a trice they were rolling down together.

One juror today. A p. m.—Only one juror has been accepted today though little time has been lost in the examination. This is the fourth man on the jury in the latter.

Haworth locked up. By this time Haworth had been over Heber C. Galley—was in the box. He had been partially examined last night, and the defense had entered a vigorous objection to him being accepted, and called for a reading of some of his answers to questions.

Slightest warning. Of what was coming, the prisoner sprang over the railing and dashed for the doorway at the head of the stairs. His friends were, strange to relate, so arranged as to form a clear path for him through the crowd.

Christopherson arrested. When Haworth had been returned to the presence of the court and after Judge Rolapp had admonished the jury not to discuss the incident in any way, the State's attorneys, Messrs. Allison and Streeter, called attention to the fact that evidence had been given to the effect that there was a conspiracy to liberate the prisoner and thus evade the demands of justice.

RUSSIAN GUNBOATS CALLED TO CHINA.

20,000 of the Czar's Troops Expected to Land at Taku, the Port of Peking.

(SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS.")

Shanghai, May 29.—The Russian minister at Peking has telegraphed asking that all the available gunboats be sent to Taku.

Clear the railway. Tien Tsin, May 29.—A detachment of 200 Chinese soldiers has cleared the railway between here and Peking, and the ordinary service was resumed at noon.

No news has been received from the Belgian engineers engaged in the construction of the Loashan line. In other respects the situation is more quiet.

Thirty Japanese have arrived from the gunboat at Agokan. The French flagship d'Entrecasteaux and the gunboat Surprise have left Taku.

Russian troops, too. London, May 29.—A special dispatch from Shanghai says it is believed Russia is about to land troops at Taku from Port Arthur, where 20,000 are in readiness.

The Chinese are reported to be sending large masses of troops overland from Hu Nan and King, but the generalissimo refuses to assume command on the plea of sickness.

Expel all foreigners. The "Boxers" assert that they are confident of receiving support from the dowager empress, Princess Kiang Yi and Chang Tuan and the entire Manchuria army.

Throughout the north the "Boxers" are enlisting hordes of desperate men. They are intent upon expelling everything foreign.

Situation is critical. Washington, May 29.—Such advices as have reached here indicate that the situation in China is assuming a very critical phase and the situation is very serious.

The state department has been in close communication with Mr. Conger, our minister at Peking, and the navy department is doing its share, having placed the flagship Newark as far as the Pei Ho river as the Taku forts, which is the nearest point to Peking that the ship can reach.

The operations of the "Boxers" are increasing in magnitude. Their demonstrations are no longer local, and they appear to be governed in their movements by some well settled design.

Methodist missionaries murdered. They have murdered nine Methodist missionaries in one province, at the town of Achow, and have closed in on Peking.

Meanwhile the Chinese army is suspected of duplicity, this belief being strengthened by wholesale desertions of the soldiers to the "Boxers."

A BEFITTING OBSERVANCE.

All Houses of Business Will be Closed Tomorrow.

HONOR ILLUSTRIOUS DEAD.

Citizens of Salt Lake City Will Attend Their Love and Reverence for the Dead Heroes.

Salt Lake City will tomorrow put on a general and befitting aspect of mourning and reverence, mourning for the loss of loved ones, reverence for the illustrious heroes whose fame has reflected honor upon their young State and the spending of whose life-blood in a generous and patriotic impulse has inscribed the word glory in undying letters across the escutcheon of the State of Utah.

There will be few who will not participate in the manifestation of love and reverence. The merchant, the banker and the manufacturer will close their doors for the day, and will actively engage in the solemn ceremonies.

Every business house in Salt Lake City will be closed all day tomorrow in attestation of their profound regard for the day. While individuals and families will mourn the loss of loved ones from the sacred family circle, and into the seclusion of the home the state will not dare to venture, yet to the State belongs the glory of her heroes, and she will tenderly bestow their graves with garlands of roses and as their fame is securely written in the archives of the State, to be perpetuated down to the latest generation, so their glory is secured within the hearts of her citizens.

There will be none in the city who will care to mar the serenity of the day, by opening their places of business.

Apparently the British dragnet will be drawn through the Transvaal as it was in a similar manner hauled through the Free State.

The fighting at the Klip river Sunday reported from Pretoria, was presumably done by Generals French and Hamilton in forcing their way round to the northward of Johannesburg.

The Orange Free State was annexed to the British Empire May 28, according to Capetown advices, but Lord Roberts seems to have given his army the first intimation of this on the previous day.

Gen. Buller attacks. New Castle, Natal, May 29.—The British guns at Ingogo have been heavily bombarding the Boer positions since daylight.

The Boer guns have replied intermittently.

Labor Commissioner Rixey the strikers today named two persons to act as arbitrators. They are E. W. Woodward, president of the Woodward & Terman Printing company, and Daniel H.
